

WRITTEN DISCLOSURE OF RELEVANT FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Children's Health Pediatric Care and Health Equity Series "Care of Hospitalized Child: Transition from Hospital to Home for Children with Medical Complexity"

January 22, 2026

It is the policy of the CME Office at Children's Health to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all directly sponsored educational activities.

In accordance with the policies and standards of the Texas Medical Association, the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, and the American Medical Association, we require that speakers and planners for continuing medical education activities disclose any relevant financial relationships they may have with an ineligible company whose products, devices or services may be discussed in the content of a CME activity.

Information and opinion offered by the speakers represent their viewpoints. Conclusions drawn by the audience should be derived from careful consideration of all available scientific information. Products may be discussed in treatment outside current approved labeling.

RELEVANT FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIP DISCLOSURE

The course director, Stormee Williams, MD, does not have any relevant financial relationships or affiliations with ineligible companies to disclose.

The speaker, Vineeta Mittal, MD does not have any relevant financial relationships or affiliations with ineligible companies to disclose.

The committee and planners have no relevant financial relationships or affiliations with ineligible companies to disclose.